Chapter 1 by Story Wars

Great secrets have always existed in my family and year by year I find them out. Usually they are just how someone died or what happened when my grandparents were children. I always loved the feeling when I got the answers. I felt accomplished.

There is however, one secret, the most important of them all... what lies under the ground.

Every afternoon my mother went out our front yard to garden but ever since my father died she hasn't been working on it at all. it has grown weeds and withered and now what used to be the most beautiful garden on the street, is the worst kept. I thought for her birthday I would surprise her with a new garden, So one afternoon I got gardening while she was at work.

Five and a half hours later I am putting the last rose bush in. I have to dig a hole that is 25cm deep so I start digging. When I am about 15cm down I hit something and hear a startled scream. But it didn't come from the surface, it came from underground.
